

"With Christ as our guide we let our light shine."

A Message from Mrs. Blincow...

Dear Parent/Carers,

At the end of another week, we reflect back on the many outpourings of affection and tributes for our late Queen, which have come in from all around the world. Hailed by many as the most respected monarch in history, we pondered in our assemblies this week what it is to show respect and what it means to be respected.

Listening to the Gospel of Matthew (7:12), we learned of the Golden Rule precept: "In everything, do to others what you would have them do to you, for this sums up the Law and the Prophets."

Putting ourselves in 'someone else's shoes' we learned that all of our actions have consequences and that in everything we do and say we have a choice. We also heard from last Sunday's Gospel, which recounts the story of the shepherd who leaves behind ninety-nine of his flock to find one lost sheep and that while we may make wrong choices, God loves us so much He will search for us when we have lost our way and will forgive us and take us back.

This week, the children voted for those who would best represent them in the coming year. We congratulate all of our new pupil leaders and wish them well as they take on their new roles.

Have a lovely weekend
Mrs Blincow
