Dear Parents,

I hope you and your families had a wonderful half term. We have had a fantastic first week back at school. On Tuesday, we celebrated Shrove Tuesday – Pancake Day. Mrs Blincow very kindly spent hours on Monday evening making over 180 fresh pancakes for all our children. Each Class was invited into the hall where they reflected on the meaning of Shrove Tuesday and how it symbolizes the beginning of Lent. The children thoroughly enjoyed their Pancakes. Thank you very much Mrs Blincow. On Wednesday Fr Andrew from St Gregory's led a lovely service during which we received our Ashes, thank you to the families who joined us on this special occasion. We have ended our week with a visit from Miss Thomason from Urban Strides; all the children have had the opportunity to participate in workshops where they learn different types of Street Dance. There was lots of fun had by all!

Have a wonderful weekend
