A message from the Headteacher

Another busy week flies by. The children as always are a credit to you. Our school council have been busy conducting Safety Surveys with classes. They found that our children had a very good knowledge of keeping safe and are now busy looking at their findings and developing a program of action, well done for their initiative with this. Today Miss Rowles and I accompanied The Ethos Team to the Diocesan Schools Mass with Bishop Peter. We had a wonderful time and joined with the other Catholic Schools in our Diocese. Two of our children carried our school banner in a procession. Well done to them for representing our school so well. Next week we are delighted to welcome our new Family Support Worker Miss Gashi the St Mary's Family, do feel free to say Hello!

Best Wishes,
